

- 01 A large marine sinkhole surrounded by reefs. The Great Blue Hole is a perfect circular formation visible from space that fascinates divers.
- 02 The territory is home to a large population of spotted felines. The jaguar is the most emblematic species living protected in the dense interior rainforests.
- 03 The ancient civilization that left impressive archaeological remains. Places like Xunantunich and Caracol preserve pyramids and ceremonial centers of the Mayan culture.
- 04 The population combines multiple heritages and ancestral traditions. Mayan, Garifuna, Creole, Mestizo, and Mennonite communities coexist, each contributing their language and customs.
- 05 The official language contrasts with that of its neighbors. Unlike the rest of Central America, Belize uses English as its main language due to its British colonial past.
- 06 A capital created from scratch after a natural disaster. Belmopan replaced Belize City in the 1970s after the former capital was devastated by a hurricane.
- 07 Its coasts harbor an exceptional marine treasure. The Belize Barrier Reef constitutes the second largest coral barrier in the entire planet.
- 08 Small islands set the slow pace of the coast. Caribbean cayes like Ambergris Caye and Caye Caulker offer turquoise beaches ideal for snorkeling and diving.
- 09 The highest peak is located in the southern mountains. Doyle's Delight rises to 1,174 meters in height, surrounded by very lush vegetation.
- 10 The main river crosses a large part of the national territory. The course of the Belize River runs for 290 kilometers before flowing into the warm waters of the Caribbean Sea.

