

- 01 The highest peak in Western Europe is here. Mont Blanc reaches an altitude of 4,807 meters in the Alps mountain range.
- 02 A famous medieval fortress attracts thousands of visitors every year. Carcassonne features impressive double walls and defensive towers restored in the 19th century.
- 03 A historical event changed the course of global politics in the past. The Revolution of 1789 put an end to absolute monarchy and promoted popular sovereignty.
- 04 The baking tradition is an inseparable part of daily life. The baguette and croissants are bought daily following customs passed down through generations.
- 05 An important city preserves a unique Renaissance historic center. Lyon is situated between the Rhône and Saône rivers and stands out for its secret passageways called traboules.
- 06 France has its longest border in South America. Because, in fact, France has territories in South America, Oceania, the African Indian Ocean, and Antarctica.
- 07 A historic river completely flows through the country's capital. The Seine crosses the historic center of Paris alongside monuments as iconic as the Eiffel Tower.
- 08 The north of the territory reflects a fascinating mix of cultural influences. Lille is located very close to Belgium and combines French traditions with Flemish elements.
- 09 Extinct volcanoes dominate the landscape of the south-central part of the country. The Massif Central stands out for its plateaus, deep valleys, and rounded peaks like the Monts du Cantal.
- 10 Wine culture connects agriculture with traditional gastronomy. Regions like Bordeaux, Burgundy, and Champagne produce wines internationally recognized for their very high quality.

